

YOUNG DANCERS . . . Taking part in the Marymount of Palos Verdes Festival of Music and Dance recently were these young dancers. Young George Murphy, of Portuguese Bend, bows to Joyce Gansley, of Wilmington, while in the background, Alicia Gatti, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elwin G. Gatti, of 4248 W. 178th St., and Marilyn Revell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald L. Revell, of 1121 Maple Ave., pauses in her ballet.

The annual Drama Awards banquet held last Thursday was a huge success. Tom Quaggin acted as master of ceremonies. Highlight of the evening was the announcement of award winners. Al Legus was surprised with the trophy for the best thespian of the past year. Steve Peters and Jan Desmond won the awards for best actor and actress, while Joe Fazio and Judy Wright were the best in supporting roles. Jeff Carr won the award for best producer. Bruce Pierce, best stage craft. Tom Cavanaugh, best producer. Jim Hoffman, best technician. and Terry Akers received the best song and variety award.

Months of practice and routine learning ended last week when the song queen and yellow-lead tryouts were held. Candidates for both North Torrance and Torrance High Schools performed before the student body. No one will know who will hold the positions until the election dance tomorrow night.

The Varsity Drag held last Friday night was a big success. Never in the history of Torrance High has there been such an enthusiastic ticket selling campaign. Varsity Club members even, in hopes to sell more tickets, provided the student body with musical entertainment during snack periods.

Student Council members did away with their gaily painted collection cans, following the end of the American Field Service Drive, held last week. All the Tartars donated all their pennies in a drive to raise money to help bring other foreign exchange students here for next year. The drive was a success and our only hope now is that we get as fine exchange students next year as we have this year.

Mrs. Frazier, and some of the members of the Future Teachers of America Club attended a Teacher Recruitment Program at John Muir Jr. High School in Los Angeles.

Many happy girls were seen holding long white envelopes last week. They were girls elected to be members of the Tartar Ladies for the coming year. The club consists of 10 juniors and 20 seniors, with 20 new members chosen at the end of each year. New members are Pat Bladley, Vickie Hagen, Judy Powell, Alex Merola, Barbara Bellafelt, Jerry Rusk, Patty Windgard, Sharon Stewart, Linda Halburg, Barbara Carter, Gwen Chaffin, Diane DeNevers, Barbara Hester, Marilyn Moss, Violet Popovich, Peggy Sprout, Judy Latta, Mary Yoshioka and Marilyn Brooks.

Other happy girls around campus are those newly elected members of Tri-Hi-Y. Congratulations to Barbara Robinson, Diane DeNevers, Barbara Carter, Virginia Gatewood, Sally Rathbun, Marilyn Moss, Sally Reed, Julie Carcerano, Mary Yoshioka, Judy Clark, Lorna Hall, Violet Popovich, Penny Bernard and Cariene Sandstrom.

Announcement of the new GAA cabinet was made at the banquet last week. Beverly Sowle will serve as president, JoFran Rube as vice president, Carol Isbell as secretary, Mary Yoshioka and Rachel Hogan as reporters, and Joan Max and Judy Stolley are sport managers.

Merchants — Watch For Stolen Checks

Torrance merchants are requested by Detective Sgt. Percy Bennett, Torrance police, to be on the lookout for checks stolen from Coast Novelty Co., Inglewood.

Blank checks, stolen recently along with a check writer, are blue and labeled with the name of Bank of America, Inglewood branch, as well as the company name. The serial numbers are 7118-7300.

If one of these checks is seen, Bennett requests that he be notified at the police station.
